

BRING IN THE VOTES

First Announcement of Standing in the Piano Contest.

WILL BE MADE ON TOMORROW

Contestants Are Getting Down to Business and There is Every Promise of a Lively Contest—Going After Yearly Subscriptions.

The contestants for the handsome piano which they Daily Press has offered for the most popular school teacher in Newport News, Hampton or Phoebus are getting down to work in earnest and when the first announcement of the standing of the contestants is made in the Daily Press tomorrow morning, there undoubtedly will be surprise at the large number of votes credited to some of the contestants. The young ladies seem to realize that the most effective way to secure votes is to go after annual subscriptions, each one of which, when paid in advance, gives 500 votes. Many such subscriptions have been turned into the office of the Daily Press, which is thus being introduced into many new homes, where it will be a welcome visitor for twelve months.

We urge all the contestants, whether in Newport News, Hampton or Phoebus to turn in their votes by 6 o'clock this evening, so that all the votes in hand up to that time may be included in the first announcement of the standing of the contestants. Votes are counted as they are received, are then recorded in a book provided for the purpose, after which they are labeled and placed in a locked box for future reference.

Green Sailor Lads Arrested as Result of Practical Joke.

Thomas Studholme and Harvey Turner, apprentices belonging to the training ship Saratoga, were in the police court yesterday morning charged with trespass.

The youngsters came ashore on leave Sunday afternoon. Some men told them that they could use a small sail boat which was anchored off the Casino grounds and loaned them a net "to catch some oysters with." Knowing as little about sailing a boat as they did about oysters, the boys soon rounded to the beach and went up to the boat. In the meantime the boat drifted against a breakwater and smashed her bowsprit.

The owner of the boat had the apprentices arrested and they were kept at the station house until assistance came from the Saratoga. Captain A. T. Water, of the training ship, said that he would have the damaged boat repaired and Justice Brown discharged the boys.

Emperor Reviews His Victorious Navy at Tokyo.

308 WARSHIPS ARE IN LINE

Three Former Russian Battleships and Many Other Captured Crafts Take Part in the Greatest Naval Review Ever Held in Asiatic Waters

TOKIO, Oct. 23.—The naval review today passed off without the slightest hitch. It was a most impressive sight, not, however, on account of the class and number of ships, but as a conglomerate of fighting craft fresh from the war and crowned with victories of unprecedented magnitude.

Three hundred and eight warships, including three former Russian battleships and several other former Russian warships were drawn up in six lines.

The Emperor on board the armored cruiser Asama passed along the front of the first line, which was headed by the battleship Shikishima, Admiral Togo's flagship.

When the end of the line was reached the cruiser Asama headed due north and then in a westerly direction, entering between the second and third lines and afterwards resumed her original position. During this maneuver Admiral Togo was at the Emperor's side. The Emperor then received in audience on board the Asama, Admiral Noel and the captains of the British and American warships present.

Popular enthusiasm was aroused to the highest pitch.

ANOTHER WHALEBACK.

Steamer Bay State Arrives to Load First Cargo Here.

The whaleback steamer Bay State arrived here yesterday morning from Montreal, Canada, via New Bedford, on her initial trip in the coastwise coal trade. The Bay State has been employed in the trade on the Great Lakes, but was recently purchased by the Bontel Steel Barge Company, of Boston, and came from the Lakes via the St. Lawrence river.

During her run from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic the Bay State stopped at Montreal to discharge a cargo of coal and she left the port without complying with some rule and was ordered to return. The steamer returned to Montreal and was later allowed to proceed on her journey.

The vessel is commanded by Captain Atkinson, formerly master of the Bay View, which ship he left to go to the Lakes to bring the Bay State down the coast.

The new whaleback will be employed in the coal trade between this and New England ports. She is of the same size as the Bayport and Bay View which have been plying out of this port for several months.

The Bay State brought the barge Berkshire from the Lakes and towed her into this port yesterday with the barge Badger. Both barges are of the whaleback type.

TURNED TO WATER

Somebody Changed the Brand of Chief Walker's "Evidence".

LIVELY TIME IN BLOODFIELD

Remarkable Case Disposed of by Justice Jones, Who Proves Himself to Be Something of a Guesser—Caplon Fined $100.

"Well, I'll be jiggered, boys, it's just plain water—unadulterated Lee Hall lithia," announced Justice Henry Jones last night after sampling the contents of tikiater introduced as evidence in the case of R. Caplon, charged with selling liquor on Sunday. His Honor smacked his lips once more to make sure; then he glanced impressively and significantly at Chief of Police Walker, of Bloodfield, sponsor for the liquid evidence.

Assounded by the turn affairs had taken, the chief grabbed for the label on the bottle. Scanning the bit of paper hurriedly, he announced in triumphant tones: "But that's not the bottle I put in my desk last night; the evidence has been switched, judge."

Taxed One Hundred and Costs. All of this caused eyes to bulge and ears to be strained at the "Beulah Poole," where Justice Jones is now chief representative of the blind goddess. And then His Honor gave the scene a fitting climax by pleasantly informing the defendant that the tax would be $100 and costs.

The usual ten days in which to note an appeal was given and Caplon was allowed to leave the court room upon his own recognizance.

The interesting session of Justice Jones' court last night was the result of a raid upon Caplon's place on Ivy avenue Sunday afternoon by Chief Williamson. A customer was caught coming out of the place with a whiskey bottle in his possession, and Jake Caplon, R. Caplon's bartender, was behind the bar at the time. Because the license was in the name of one Frank Carmel, the warrant was issued against Carmel, but all Bloodfield knows is that Caplon is proprietor, general manager, etc., of the place in question, so the paper was served upon Caplon and he responded.

Put Bottle in Desk.

After making the raid Chief Williamson deposited the bottled evidence in the drawer of his desk, and Major Wright, colored, a leading light at the Bloodfield bar, was in the office at the time. Major Wright appeared last night as counsel for the defense. The chief did not look in the drawer again until the case was called. Then he produced a bottle upon which the seal had been broken. Little attention was paid to this fact until Justice Jones discovered that the tikiater contained water. Then the chief investigated and found that the "R. Caplon, Oct. 22," which, according to his statement, he had written upon the label of the bottle taken in the raid, did not appear on the label in evidence.

Something of a Guesser.

No direct accusations were made, but judging from the nature of the verdict, the court must have done some heady guessing as to how the "evidence" turned temperance.

Jake Caplon got on the stand and protested that he filled the bottle with water Saturday to give to a man who was to call Sunday. He didn't know who the "man" was, but was sure that the bottle in evidence was the one he sold.

Several other witnesses were introduced and the attorneys argued; then Justice Henry dealt out his decision in short order.

Attorney T. J. Newsome, colored, represented the prosecution.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT.

Hospital Directors Elect Successor to Miss Naw.

The board of directors of the Newport News General Hospital Association met last night and elected a successor to Miss Huldah Naw, who recently resigned her position as superintendent of the hospital. After the meeting the directors declined to give out the name of the new superintendent, saying that the announcement would be made today.

The board did not elect a successor to Dr. Rudasill, the house physician, who has also resigned.

TEMPORARY REPAIRS MADE.

Schooner Job H. Jackson Ready to Leave Shipyard.

The three-masted schooner Job H. Jackson, which arrived here several days ago, will be floated out of drydock No. 1, at the shipyard, today. Temporary repairs have been made on the schooner. It is not known where she will go to from this port.

The Jackson was rammed and sunk in Chesapeake bay by the steamer Bayport several weeks ago, but was raised by the Merritt-Chapman Wrecking Company and brought to this port for temporary repairs.

Now is the season fast approaching when the can-opener will be mightier than the sword.

WANTED.

SCORES OF THE BEST BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL men in Newport News are stockholders in the Capuzaya Mining Co. More are buying every day. Many are doubting their subscriptions. And while we do not ask you to buy simply because we have bought, we would suggest that you consider well this opportunity to buy good, legitimate, commercial mining stock at $5.00 per share. When we think of this great opportunity we are reminded of the words of Julius Caesar, who said: "There is a tide in the affairs of men which taken at its flood leads on to fortune, etc."

And of another equally as pertinent: "Doubt is a traitor, and makes us lose the good we oft might win by fearing to attempt." Ella Wheeler Wilcox says: "More fortunes have been lost by over-cautiousness than by rashness."

Statistics show that $100,000,000 is paid out annually in mining dividends. Capuzaya should begin to yield soon. Two shares smallest amount of stock sold. If you have $10 to invest, come to our office and ask about Capuzaya. We are large stockholders ourselves. T. L. FARRAR & CO., Coleman Building, 2615 Washington avenue.
